CERTAIN PEOPLE OF IMPORTANCE

THIS is one of those rare novels which hold the mirror up to life, neither idealizing their characters nor reducing them to sordidness. It tells the truth. Simply, vividly it pictures the intimate life of a typical American family.

As "Elizabeth," author of "Elizabeth and Her German Garden," says:

"It is a wonderful, an epic book. It reminded me of Arnold Bennett's 'Old Wives' Tale.' I couldn't stop reading it, and as it is long it played havoc with what I ought to have been doing."

DEMOCRATIC CLUB
TO ELECT T. E. RUSH

Nomination of Ex-Surveyor
Shows Wilson Men Still Dominating Organization.

TOMPKINS TO BE OPPOSED

Cohalan's Campaign Manager
May Not Be Governor Again
After Defying Murphy.

Thomas E. Rush, who bolted Tammany and defied Charles F. Murphy only a few years ago, has been nominated for President of the National Democratic Club, and will be elected at the annual meeting to-night without opposition. He returned to the organization a year ago.

Leslie J. Tompkins, a governor, is to be opposed for reelection because he was campaign manager for Surrogate Cohalan in the last campaign, and daily for weeks assailed Tammany and Murphy. Frank J. Murphy will be the opposing candidate for governor.

The National Democratic Club is non-partisan. Charles F. Murphy never has been active in its affairs, as was Richard Croker, who made it his headquarters in the latter years of his Tammany leadership. Democrats were surprised when they learned that a contest had been started against Prof. Tompkins because of his campaign activities, especially in view of the fact that Mr. Rush, another insurgent in his day, was nominated unanimously.

The influence of the Wilson Democrats appears to dominate still in the club. James W. Gerard, formerly Ambassador to Germany, is chairman of the nominating committee. Mr. Rush was Surveyor of the Port of New York in the Wilson Administration, and broke with Tammany because he disapproved of the organization's attitude toward the President. His return was signaled last year when he presided at a Tammany meeting in the Wigwam.

Mr. Wilson and James M. Cox are nominated for honorary vice-presidents. It was partly because of their nominations that a strong Wilson man was selected to head the club.

Herbert H. Lehman is nominated for first vice-president, George J. Atwell for second vice-president, John K. Sague for Poughkeepsie for treasurer and William H. Hickson and Francis J. McIntyre for secretaries.

The club members will consider selling the clubhouse property, presumably to Saks & Co., for $1,010,000, as approved by the Supreme Court. Nathan Hirsch, chairman of the committee on ways and means, will report on proposed sites for a new club house near Fifth avenue between Fortieth and Fifty-ninth streets.

DIER FIGHTS TO-DAY TO QUASH INDICTMENT.

Fuller Will Seek Grand Jury
Minutes To-morrow.

Counsel for Elmore D. Dier of the bankrupt firm of E. D. Dier & Co. will appear before Judge Mancuso in General Sessions this morning to make a motion that Dier, charged with grand larceny and bookkeeping, be allowed to withdraw his plea of not guilty so as to make a motion to quash the indictment against him. Ferdinand Pecora, acting District Attorney, said that his office will oppose the motion.

Counsel for Edward M. Fuller, whose trial on a charge of bookkeeping resulted in a failure to reach a verdict, will appear before Judge Mancuso to-morrow morning with a motion that Fuller be permitted to inspect the minutes of the Grand Jury.

GIRL THIEF JAILED;
HAD CARRIED A PISTOL

Came Here to Go on Stage and Stole a Coat.

Margaret McGovern, 20, of 629 West 125th street came to this city from her home in a suburb of Boston some time ago intending to go on the stage. She did not make a success, and yesterday she was arraigned in Special Sessions charged with stealing a coat valued at $6.50 from a Fifth avenue store and carrying an automatic pistol.

Justice Murphy, Freschi and Moore gave her a suspended sentence on the pistol charge and sent her to Bedford Reformatory for an indeterminate period for theft.

WORKERS PARTY BORN HERE
UNDER SOVIET'S AUSPICES

ans have at all times and in all cases proved their friendship for labor, defending it from attacks of the American Legionnaires, and

"Whereas the World War Veterans organization is an organization of more or less class-conscious workers in sympathy with those who aim to abolish the system that breeds war, be it therefore,

"Resolved, That the delegations at the convention of the Workers party endorse the World War Veterans and urge all ex-soldiers belonging to the Workers party, as well as all workers who served in the world war, to join the World War Veterans."

Education of Women.

Resolution No. 3, on education, asserts:

"One of the most important functions of the Workers party of America is to train the workers and its members in an understanding of the history and problems of the labor movement and the fundamental principles and tactics of revolutionary Marxism.

"The Central Executive Committee of the Workers party of America is, therefore, directed to immediately formulate plans for the establishment of workers' schools in the chief industrial centers of the United States.

"The Central Executive Committee shall also prepare plans for the organization of study courses for the use of locals and sections of the party."

Help for Soviet Russia.

Resolution No. 4 dealt with reconstruction and relief for the Russian Soviet Republic. It reads:

"Resolved, That the Workers party pledges itself to do all within its power to carry the urgent appeal of Soviet Russia to the great masses of the American working class; and further

"Resolved, That the Workers party pledges its support to any organization or movement aiming to aid Soviet Russia to rebuild its industry and its starving people."

Russian Revolution's Meaning.

Resolution No. 5 was on Soviet Russia. It says:

"The Russian revolution is the first successful uprising of the masses under the leadership of the working class against private ownership of capital and land in modern society. For the first time since the establishment of capitalism the Russian workers nationalized all the larger industrial establishments and declared the land the property of the nation, to be used only by those who work on it with their own hands. Thus the Russian revolution marks a new era in the history of our times and proves beyond doubt that once organized in a strong party and conscious of its historic aim, the working class may be able to seize the power of state in time of a revolution, establish proletarian dictatorship and abolish private ownership in order to establish the Socialist order. The convention of the Workers party of America sees in the Russian revolution the vanguard of all class-conscious workers of the world, and the herald of a new era for workers' republics.

"Long live the Russian Socialist Federated Soviet Republic!

"Long live the rule of the Russian workers and peasants."

Young People's Organizations.

Resolution No. 6 was on "REVOLUTIONARY YOUNG WORKERS ORGANIZATION IN THE UNITED STATES." It says:

"The important role of the revolutionary young people's organizations in the general proletarian movement can be best exemplified by the scope of the revolutionary Young Workers organizations in Europe, where they have long been the vanguard in all of the activities of the entire movement. Already more than 800,000 young revolutionists, from 40 countries, have been enrolled under the banner of the Young Communist Internationale, the fighting vanguard of the proletarian youth of the world.

"There is no country in the world where the number of young people employed in the industries make up such a large percentage of the entire working class as in the United States. No efforts to organizing them have been made. At the present time there exist various young people's organizations—Young Workers leagues, Marxist clubs, Branches of the Independent Young People's Socialist League and other militant bodies. They can be easily united into a national organization, and it is imperative that this be done immediately."

Amnesty for Prisoners.

Resolution No. 7 urges organizations of labor to do everything to being about amnesty for political prisoners.

Resolution No. 8 calls for release of Sacco and Vanzetti because they were convicted on insufficient evidence.

Resolution No. 9, which condemns the Industrial Court law of Kansas, reads:

"Whereas Alexander Howat and August Dorcy, president and vice-president of District 14 of the United Mine Workers of America, are now imprisoned because of their refusal to accept the Industrial Court law of the State of Kansas; and

"Whereas this law is purely an instrument in the hands of the employers to further shackle the workers; therefore be it

"Resolved, That we go on record as being in sympathy with them in the fight against this law and that we give the Kansas miners our wholehearted support."

Resolution No. 10 resolved that "we establish a monthly magazine to propagate the principles of Marxism and revolutionary understanding."

The program of the Workers party of America as adopted by the New York convention and promulgated later draws a dark picture of Germany, England, France and America. It turns to Soviet Russia for a model. The program reads:

"For more than four years the Soviet Government of the Workers and Peasants has stood unshaken before the continual attacks of international capitalism. The death dealing blockade, the incited attacks of the Czarist generals, the criminal onslaught of the Polish imperialists, the crop failure and the famine due to drought—all these have failed to undermine the Soviet Government. To-day it is more firmly established than ever. The Workers party looks to Soviet Russia for leadership in the struggle against world imperialism."

"There has been up to the present no political organization that could lead and unify the workers against capitalism. With the Workers party such an organization makes its appearance in American life."

Will Direct Struggle.

"The Workers party will centralize and direct the struggle of the laboring masses against the powerfully centralized opposition of their exploiters. It will courageously defend the struggle of our times and prove worthy for the abolition of capitalism. Its general program will be:

"1. To consolidate the existing labor organizations and develop them into organs of militant struggle against capitalism; permeate the trade unions with truly revolutionary elements; mercilessly expose the reactionary bureaucrats and strive to replace them with revolutionary leaders.

"2. To participate actively in the election campaigns and the general political life of the country. Its representatives in the legislative and executive offices of the Government will unmask the treachery of capitalist democracy and help to mobilize the workers for the final struggle against the common enemy. This will give conscious and public expression to the every day grievances of the working class in concrete demands upon the capitalist Government and its institutions.

"3. To lead in the fight for the immediate needs of the workers, broaden and deepen their demands and develop out of their everyday struggle a force for the abolition of capitalism.

"4. To work for the establishment of a workers' republic.

"Waging its campaign upon the most pressing and vital needs of the workers, it will ask for this endorsement at the polls. To-day these needs are:

"1. The protection of labor unions and of the right to strike and picket in all industries.

"2. An immediate appropriation of funds from the municipal, State and Federal treasuries to relieve the distress of the unemployed; these funds to be disposed of through the labor unions and special councils created by the unemployed.

"3. Obeyance upon the part of the capitalists and the Government bodies to their own laws regarding the rights of the individual and the laws won from them by organized labor before the war.

"4. The protection of the lives and rights of the negroes.

"5. The cessation of preparation for new wars.

"6. The withdrawal of American military and governing forces from Haiti, San Domingo and Porto Rico and independence for the Philippine and Pacific islands.

"7. The resumption of trade relations with Russia and the recognition of the Soviet Republic.

Organization of Farmers.

"The Workers party will seek to unite the struggles of the farmer with those of the city workers along class lines. It will develop for this purpose conscious groups of farmers in all farm organizations, and will expose the capitalist agents and their propaganda. It will make every effort to participate actively in the daily struggles of the farmers.

"Facing this crisis, the Workers party of America rejoices to be able to point out that for the first time in our labor history an adequate and comprehensive program has been laid out for the militant workers in the labor union. The first World Congress of Red Labor Unions held in Moscow in July, 1921, brought together the wisdom and experience of the revolutionary labor movement of the whole world. Out of this congress came a clear and definite program which, if applied with intelligence and energy by the militant workers, will lead the American labor union movement out of the present disruption and will place it upon the high road to social and economic power—the road to the Workers Republic.

"The Workers party, therefore, calls upon the class-conscious workers of America to rally to the banner of the Red International of Trade Unions. It calls upon them to consider carefully the resolutions and decisions of the first Congress of the Red Internationale and to put its policies into effect: (1) by joining the labor union of their calling; (2) by organizing a minority group with all other class-conscious workers in such movement, or joining such militant bodies of this nature as already exist; (3) by using the energies of these class-conscious groups to place militant aggressive programs into effect in their unions and depose the conservative or reactionary officials that stand in the way or oppose.

"Dual Unionism Opposed.

"The Workers party stands for the principle of one union in each field. Dual unionism must be done away with. The revolutionary workers must remain within the mass organization of the backward workers. The custom of seceding from the mass unions to form smaller unions on the ground that the mass union is reactionary must be abandoned. Attempts of the officialdom to expel revolutionary individuals must be resisted by every possible means. The policy shall be consolidation, not division."

In a set of resolutions that go with the Workers party program this paragraph occurs: "Within All Trade and Industrial Unions the Workers Party will organize and promote revolutionary groups and will help to cry-
